

THE OFFICE

The Can of Ham, or 70 St Mary Axe is a distinctive landmark in the City of London, neighbouring the Gherkin. The building is still under construction, with completion due in 2019. The finished project will incorporate 300,000 square feet of premium office space with a stunning glass exterior. With a fabulous location close to transport links and the very best that London has to offer in terms of shopping, dining and entertainment, this is bound to be a popular spot for forward-thinking businesses looking for a city base.
